Company Description:	Mundial Foods is a Brazilian manufacturing company specializing in the production of more than 200 ultra-frozen bakery foods. With over 45 years of experience, the company operates three brands, Leve Sabor, La Paolla, and Dayfood, offering a diverse product portfolio that includes frozen desserts and pastries like muffins and pies, pizzas, pão de queijo (cheese bread), savory snacks such as coxinhas, bolinha de queijo, rissoles, and pastéis, polenta sticks, tapioca cubes, frozen cassava, cookies, churros, cheesecakes, bread crumbs, among other products. They distribute their products to supermarkets, bakeries, hotels and restaurants and catering buffets. Headquartered in Caxias do Sul, Rio Grande do Sul, Mundial Foods has a broad and modern production facility covering approximately 129,167 square feet and operates across all three states in Brazil's South region, serving both the Brazilian and Japanese markets. The company imports from South America and Europe a variety of raw materials including fats, stabilizers, flours, butter, bakery bases, berries, seeds, sauces, and more, and is actively seeking to expand its portfolio of imported ingredients. In the past few years, they've been importing U.S. products through a trading conglomerate that consolidates ingredient purchases for several industries. As their volumes have grown with their expansion, they now want to streamline their purchasing and import directly.

Company Description:	Isopan is one of the most important and largest bakeries in Guatemala, with over 35 stores across the country and more than 60 years of experience. Isopan combines artisanal tradition with modern, industrialized processes, offering fresh, oven-baked products at any time of day across all its 36 locations throughout Guatemala. Also offering home delivery service across Guatemala City, the company was the first bakery to introduce Gluten-free bread and pre-cooked options. The company plans to increase its number of its stores by offering new products with high-quality standards. To achieve this goal, they are highly interested in working with U.S. suppliers of ingredients, bakery products, and raw materials (including processed cheeses) for its product lines and portfolio. They current source imported ingredients from local distributors, but they do have the capacity in both economic and infrastructure to import directly. Due to the rising costs and their economic capacity, they want to start importing directly from U.S suppliers.

Company Description:	Established in 1997 as part of Gardenia International, Gardenia Bakeries Philippines, Inc. has grown to become the leading loaf bread brand in Metro Manila, holding over 60% market share in the packaged bread category. Utilizing automated facilities, including their Laguna plant with a 18,000 loaves-per-hour capacity, and a distribution network reaching over 81,000 third-party outlets (for the QAF group), the company delivers a range of bakery products. Expansion, through investments in facilities like their Laguna and Pampanga plants, has increased total capacity to 1.8 million loaves and buns daily. The company maintains ISO 9001 and HACCP certifications. The QAF Limited group's Bakery division generated $336.8 million USD in revenue in FY2024. Gardenia Bakeries Philippines, the largest commercial bakery in the Philippines, operates multiple large-scale, highly automated manufacturing facilities across the country, including sites in Laguna, Pampanga, Cagayan de Oro, and Cebu. These plants utilize advanced technology for their processes, producing a wide range of baked goods encompassing well over 50 product SKUs. Their extensive portfolio includes classic white breads, health breads, flavored loaves, pandesal, buns, and snack treats. Key ingredients in these products include wheat flour, sugar, salt, yeast, vegetable oils (like palm and coconut oil), milk powder, and various vitamins and minerals. They are looking for more U.S. ingredients to expand their offerings.
